li'l aesthetes, cont'd a kid weighs in

Sure, grown-ups love the showroom-like displays that designer Nancy Braithwaite creates in her store. Intended to suit a variety of styles (from Swedish country to mod), they're as tasteful as any of her adult interiors, and everything from the bedding to the lamps is for sale. But what do kids think? We asked our editor-in-chief's precociously style-savvy daughter to go online and choose her favorite wares. ALL ITEMS AVAILABLE AT B BRAITHWAITE (404) 605-0963.

I like this room a lot a lot a lot!

Polyethylene "Julian" chair $90

I would love to sit on this chair shaped like a cat!

This bunny is almost as big as me! Those eyes and nose are really cute.

Polyester-fiber "Chaffee" 26" bunny $62.50 "Fatboy Point" nylon pouf $89

I've always liked those sort of pointy things.

the b braithwaite collection

This is so pretty! You don't want to spill on it, but it looks great for playing hide-and-seek.

"Traditional English" armchair with ruffled skirt $600

Anyone will like this night-light! babies, little kids, teenagers Bear night-light! $14.50
