

Southern Accents

The magazine of fine Southern interiors and gardens

May-June 2006

COLOR

make every room inviting cities with style:

Charleston
Louisville
Santa Fe
Atlanta

SOFAS:
everything you need to know!

travel: window shopping

B. Braithwaite

This Atlanta baby and children's store offers a variety of interiors for the heir apparent.

THE OWNERS: Celebrated Atlanta designer Nancy Braithwaite, who is known for interiors that are simple, clean-lined, and antiques-filled, and her daughter Chaffee.

THE STYLE: "We love baby décor that is contemporary and fun with bright colors and modern prints but also the classic baby look that is traditional with soft pastels, toile de Jouy, and organdy. We also love checks, gingham, and plaids with muted Swedish colors," says Nancy.

THE INSPIRATION: "While shopping in Paris," says Chaffee, "my mother came across a baby store that inspired us to bring our own concept of well-designed nursery décor to Atlanta."

WHAT'S IN STORE: Ducduc, Netto Collection, Stokke, custom-designed cribs from Corsican and Newport Cottages, and B. Braithwaite.

BY AMANDA SMITH MCCLANAHAN
PHOTOGRAPHED BY MALI AZIMA

LEFT: Bears from the Bearington Collection surround a mass of tulips. The rocking chair is from the B. Braithwaite collection. ABOVE: Nancy and daughter Chaffee stand at the door of their shop, where a grand rabbit topiary offers a playful welcome. BELOW: Children love the bright colors of the large nylon stuffed animals by Soft Goods.

